Halloween Carnival Time Goblins Haunt Sleep

Ghosts and goblins, horror houses and fish ponds have literally kept the Wallace (Jack) Smalls up at night.

It isn't a haunted house problem exactly. The lack of sleep is blamed on joint chairmanship of the annual public Halloween Carnival sponsored by St. Anthony School Parent-Teachers Club.

The carnival, billed as the biggest and best yet, will be Saturday, October 26 at Simon George Hall. Small said they changed from the traditional Halloween eve to a weekend when more could come and booths could remain up longer.

Coordinating and making space for a variety of games, booths, decorations and costumes, plus food, has been a major production for the Smalls. Committee meetings and last minute decisions have all been with the knowledge that the annual carnival is the major fund raising project for the St. Anthony School.

Former carnivals have provided such extras as visual aid equipment, new desks and chairs and library books, according to Bruce Crook, PTC president.

Children are invited to come in Halloween costume, although no contests have been scheduled this year. Many of the events, such as the horror house manned by seventh and eighth graders and the fish pond, are planned for their entertainment.

A 75-cent spaghetti supper, hot dogs and desserts will be served beginning at 5:30 p.m. Mrs. Paul Sheguit and Mrs. Thomas Sheguit are in charge of food arrangements.

Prizes including a 14-ft aluminum fishing boat valued at $240 and a whole beef cut and wrapped, will be given away at 10 p.m.

Committee chairmen working on the carnival are: Mr. and Mrs. Matt Zarosky Jr., bingo; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Zolt, cake walk; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin June Jr., stuffed toy stand; Eugene Mitcham and James Richardson, prizes; Albert Michalka, ring toss; Mrs. Stanley Glaser and Mrs. Charles Riola, fish pond; Clarence Hanel, set-up; Henry Litzman, finance; Mrs. Clarence Hanel, horror house.

Homecoming '68 Awaiting Hearne

Class Of '58 To Host Dance

UNITED FUND '69 CAMPAIGN

Cameron United Fund Drive got underway this week following a kickoff dinner at Cameron Country Club Tuesday.

Forrest Sapp, United Fund chairman, said businesses would be contacted this week and the house to house drive will be Tuesday, October 22.

Pledge cards can be turned in to the Texas Power & Light Co.

Yoe High School Exes will be welcomed back Friday when the Yoemen clash with Hearne for the annual Yoe Homecoming salute.

The Hearne Eagles invasion of Yoemen Field 8 p.m. Friday is a test of identical 1-4 records in the first 19-AA district game.

A reunion is planned for the Class of 1958 and all Yoe High ex-students are invited to a homecoming dance following the game.

The Yoe High Ex-Students Association will sponsor the dance from 10:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Friday at National Guard Armory. Music will be by Bill Mounce Orchestra.

Exes from the Class of '58 will sit together in a special section Friday night. A family picnic is planned for class members from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday at City Park.

About 50 are expected for the Class of '58 banquet and dance Saturday at Cameron Country Club. Of the 100-member class, only 12 live in Cameron. Mrs. Warren Rinn and Mrs. W. W.

Turner organized the class reunion.

Coach Hal Stanislaw says everyone but Dennis Crouch will see some action against Hearne.

Jerry Richardson is still uncertain but will play some, and quarterback Robert Brashear will be back for Cameron's second victory quest in consecutive weeks.

Fullback Dennis Crouch is expected to be sidelined with an ankle injury for another week, Stanislaw says.

Hearne brings to town a team with good material, the Yoe head coach says. He believes their inability to win more games is due to a failure to "jell."

Stanislaw credits the Yoemen win at West, breaking a 25-game homewin streak, with Cameron's superior punt coverage. He says the Yoemen team effort gained yardage on punt exchange throughout the ballgame. Cameron won, 8-7.

Hearne brings two big tackles in 193-pound Charles Johnson and 194-pound David Moore, but a team otherwise about normal size.

Cameron's sophomore - junior team is considerably less experienced than Hearne's club, though two Eagle starters are sophomores.

It will be an interesting conference battle because it could set the tone for either team. Pre-district contests have been hard on the won column for both squads.

Probable lineups are:
POS. Cameron Hearne
QB Brashear — Wilson
HB Anderson or — Mathews
McLerran
HB Steamer — Staten
FB Schigut — Britton
E Gregor Williams or — Shaw
Tom Terrell
E Hosch — Neal
T R. Richardson — Johnson
T Fisher — Moore
C Cavanaugh — Rios
G Mueck — Allen
G Urban — Davis

Blood Donors Short Of 71 - Pint Goal

Bloodmobile donations fell far short of the 71-pint goal Wednesday, October 9, with only 56 pints of blood given. The decline in donors came at a time when blood was in short supply at the Waco Blood Center.

Sister Aloysius, local blood program chairman, said a misunderstanding about information required of donors might have caused the decline in volunteers. At the previous bloodmobile visit donors had been asked for their social security number, but Sister Aloysius said this was a mistake and is not required information.

Stormy weather last Wednesday afternoon may have kept some donors away also.

The next bloodmobile visit is scheduled for January.

the downtown area program starting with a study of the central business district by Bentley and Associates, a planning firm. This report several years ago brought the appointment of a 15-member City Planning Commission which recommended a downtown urban renewal program.

And he recalled the planning referendum which carried more than 3 to 1 in August, 1966. McCullin termed its approval "overwhelming."

He then showed a layout of the proposed downtown area which includes the block west of the Courthouse in combination mall-parking center. It is one of perhaps a dozen representations and not the final one to be done, McCullin noted.

NO BOND ISSUE
Mayor E. A. Perrin near the end of McCullin's presentation said: "There is no question we can do it without a bond issue," itemizing the City's resources and obligations.

McCullin responded: "I can't think of anything that is more important, right now, to be done for Cameron."

Perrin agreed.
Councilman R. W. Wells resolved that the program outlined in McCullin's presentation be adopted and financing be with the City's See COUNCIL—Page Two

Council Approves UR's Plan For Renewal Without Bonds

The City Council Monday night at City Hall unanimously approved Cameron Urban Renewal Board's proposal for a 24-block, $541,111 downtown renewal program without—repeat—without a bond issue.

Councilmen heard A. W. McCullin, chairman of the Urban Renewal Board, explain a three-step program to pull down the block west of Courthouse Square, develop a mall-parking center and rework streets, sidewalks and purchase other irreparable downtown buildings.

McCullin said the block program would be divided into three areas, the urban renewal agency contracting to sell first part of the block one year, another part the second, and the final the third year.

"In the meantime," McCullin said, "we (the urban renewal agency) would develop the central area." At the end of the contract, which is a three-year period, we would dedicate the third portion of the land."

TWO TOWN MEETINGS

The Council itself can call a public hearing of the plans in about six weeks after they have been presented by the Urban Renewal Board in a public hearing 7:30 p.m. Monday at Methodist Fellowship Hall.

Upon this hearing, the plans are sent to Fort Worth regional office of Housing and Urban Development and then to Washington for final approval.

The City Council is required to present the final plans, in another town meeting, finally approved in Washington, before Urban Renewal can implement them.

McCullin, optimistic throughout the five-month planning stage, says work can begin about January 1, 1969.

Key to doing the downtown program without necessity of additional city funds to match the required 3 to 1 federal funds in non-cash credits allowed for previous city projects.

They include non-cash credits for: $50,000 for water and sewer improvements; $76,880 for parcel A & B land and improvements; and $1,062 state highway work. Total is $127,942.

PROJECT $541,111
Project cost before adding of credits is $541,111. This figure plus the $127,942 non-cash credits totals to a gross project cost of $669,053.

Urban renewal figures show an estimate of $197,830 on proceeds from land acquired to reduce the net project cost to $471,223.

Cameron's share of the $471,223 net project cost is one-fourth or $117,806, which is actually $10,136 more than the non-cash credits total required.

We understand Cameron ministers visited the county jail the other day.

They must have observed the conditions there, the ones county taxpayers thus far have been unable to find the funds to correct. Or in the jail's case, eliminate for use as a jail. It would be a good museum.

We think the church is outside as well as inside "the church" and Milam County Jail is a good place to see what needs to be, and can be done.

Wife Jan and I saw the musical "Man of La Mancha" the other day at Texas State Fair. It is the story of Don Quixote and the author Cervantes who wrote two volumes of the world's first novel, generally considered the greatest. In that show is the familiar, almost classic song "Impossible Dream."

The setting is in a dungeon in 16th century Spain where Cervantes awaits judgment of the Inquisition. He tells about the knight errant and dreamer Don Quixote in a play within the play.

The show builds one's desire to hear the "Impossible Dream" and its reprise again and again as reality follows reality in the play, in the play within the play and after the play is over.

Cong. W. R. Poage To Help Dedicate NMH Expansion

Cong. W. R. Poage is scheduled 4 p.m. Sunday, October 27, to make dedication remarks at ceremonies opening the 22-room addition of Newton Memorial Hospital.

The Cameron ceremonies will open to public view the additional 44-bed capacity, which extended three wings of the hospital. Contractor is Chandler Construction Co.

Other medical equipment has been added since the main building of the new Newton Memorial Hospital was opened in 1962. New equipment includes hydro-therapy, "pacemaker", cardiac monitor, defibrillator, whirlpool baths and recent additional of physical therapy apparatus, hospital officials said.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new addition of 22 hospital rooms were held Nov. 3, 1967. It is financed by private funds and contributions.

Officers of Newton Memorial Hospital are: B. M. McMillion, president; L. A. Dusek, vice president; and Charles C. Smith, N. L. Caperton and F. L. Gregory board members.

The original Newton Memorial Hospital was chartered May 11, 1942. Original construction of the present operation was begun in 1961. That structure had 35 patient rooms, operating room, delivery room, x-ray, laboratory and other facilities and offices.

ST. ED FUND CLEARS $110M MARK IN DRIVE

St. Edward Hospital Development Fund campaign was moving ahead this week with gifts and pledges passing the $110,000 mark.

Goal for the hospital drive is $250,000, one-fourth of the $1 million building cost for the proposed new 49-bed hospital.

Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, who operate the hospital, have pledged $250,000 and the federal government Hill-Burton committee has approved a $500,000 grant for construction.

Two gifts of $10,000 each helped give the fund drive a head start. Gifts of $50,932 were announced at the kickoff dinner in September.

Groundbreaking for the new facility will be May or June, 1969, due to federal time tables required through Hill-Burton participation.

The present hospital has a yearly payroll of $100,642.90 with 35 full time employees and five part time employees. During 1967, a total of 1,072 in-patients were cared for (outpatients totaled 375) for a total of 7,291 patient days.

Sisters of the Incarnate Word have been operating the St. Edward Hospital since 1946. The present facility was built prior to World War I.

Suggested memorial gifts in the Development Fund campaign may be given for: administration offices, dietary section, emergency and laboratory sections, obstetrical section and patient areas including rooms and nurses areas, physical therapy, surgical section and X-ray section.

general fund. Councilman John Hays seconded and the vote was unanimous.

City Secretary Buddy Fuller read the outcome of the planning election of August 27, 1966. It was 368 votes for, and 116 against.

McCullin told Councilmen that "I have yet to work on a project in which as much interest has been shown as this one... We have a wonderful city in many respects, but when you come downtown, it is an absolute disgrace."

Councilman Well opined that he thought the committee had "done a wonderful job. I would like to express our thanks to them."

Mayor Perrin said "I can appreciate what they have done. We do owe them an expression of appreciation."

Mayor Perrin said that when people know the facts, they will go with us 100 percent.

DOWNTOWN WORK

The plan, when implemented, will remove the downtown block west of the Courthouse, rework most of the streets and sidewalks in the 24-block area, rearrange some utility poles and lines and cause removal of some other buildings engineers have termed irreparable.

James Green, project engineer with the consulting firm of Bernard Johnson, of Houston, explained details of the proposed downtown project financing.

It showed planning costs of $60,461 which is covered primarily by a HUD grant already committed. Federal funds of $634,000 plus are designated, but not committed for the Cameron downtown renewal project.

A subtotal of $218,945 included: $60,000 in administrative costs, $20,220 for site clearance, $38,950 for site improvement, $30,000 in interest, $9,910 in legal services and lesser items tabbed acquisition expenses, disposition costs and rehabilitation costs.

A land purchase figure of $234,905 is noted which, McCullin emphasizes, would anticipate the maximum needed for land purchase, but would not all necessarily be used.

Adding a figure of $4,900 for HUD inspections, the gross project cost is $541,111. Other items to be considered are: $72,500 for relocation payments and $36,000 for rehabilitation.

The sketch of the mall is reproduced on this front page. McCullin said this drawing is subject to modification in another being drawn by Bernard Johnson engineers for the weekend.

ABOUT THE BLOCK

He told Councilmen value of the block land is established: "at the present time, this is $18,125. Money you (the City) pay for the land plus $30,000 improvements would become a credit item for the City of Cameron."

He said the mall is to be raised two feet above the parking area and would be of concrete with a rough stone finish. Called Block 14, the block would be lined up to line up with the Courthouse Square. And McCullin explained other ideas on parking arrangement. At

New Rating System For Movies Told

The motion picture industry has announced a new voluntary film rating system to guide parents, with a special consideration for children.

Jack Valenti, president of the Motion Pictures Association of America in stating the reason for the new program, said, "Our primary concern is children, and that concern is the dominant reason for the voluntary film rating program."

The Code and Rating Administration (an expansion of the Production Code Administration) will administer the new system of ratings in close association with the Production Code. All motion pictures released after November 1 will carry a rating.

Motion pictures exhibited in the U.S. will be rated in the following manner:

G — Suggested for general audiences.

M — Suggested for mature audiences - adults and mature young people (parental discretion advised).

R — Restricted - Persons under 16 not admitted, unless accompanied by parent or adult guardian.

X — Persons under 16 not admitted.

A rating of X on a film indicates that because of the subject matter or treatment of the subject matter, persons under 16 will not be admitted. This rating will be enforced at the box office of each theatre. (In certain areas this age restriction may be higher.)

The MPAA urges parents to learn to identify the rating symbols and use sources of film content information in making decisions for their children's movie-going. Older children can be taught what the symbols mean and why they are important.

Valenti said there was apt to be confusion over the next several months because all pictures will not bear ratings. Since the rating will be on films released after Nov. 1, there will be a gap of about six to nine months before the rating system will near full effectiveness.

Badgers Score 54 - 27 Win Over Jarrell Cougars

The Buckholts Badgers racked up their fifth straight win Friday night, downing the Jarrell Cougars 54-27.

Scoring began in the first quarter when Badger Terry McNeil made a 12-yard double reverse touchdown. The PAT failed. Six more points were added by an Allen Barkmeyer to McNeil pass. Norman Haisler kicked the points after.

Barkmeyer hit Gordon Haisler for the third TD with David Jaicek kicking the PAT.

Jarrell managed to get in a score with Andrew Palousek going in from the six, with no points after. McNeil returned a 70-yard kickoff by Arthur Layton for another Badger touchdown.

Cougar Freddy Garcia tossed a 65-yard pass to Palousek for Jarrell's net score, with Palousek running the point after.

The second quarter saw only one touchdown, when Gordon Haisler caught a 3-yard pass from Barkmeyer. The third quarter belonged to the Badgers and by the start of the fourth, the score was Buckholts 42, Jarrell 13.

Jarrell's two scores in the fourth quarter ran their total to 27, but Buckholts' final score in the fourth ended the contest.

Eagles Smash Cougars 45 - 0

Rogers Eagles began their second district game Friday night with five touchdowns in the first quarter, and continued to wallop the Leon Cougars for a 45-0 victory on Rogers Field.

Quarterback Gene York's 32-yard pass to Billy Craft led the stream of TDs. Craft kicked the extra point. A six-yard run by Eugene Brenek and a 15-yard run by Mike Schneider ran up the score.

Brenk caught a 62-yard pass from York for the next six, and Robert Woods ran three yards to paydirt. Craft's kick was good and again after Buddy Allison went over from two yards out.

Don Mayfield made a field goal in the last quarter from 26 yards out. Craft made another from 25 yards out.

This puts the Eagles to 4-1 for the season and 1-1 in district. They fell to Rosebud last week. Leon is 0-5.

SHEARING WITHOUT CLIPPERS

A young man with just a few minutes' instruction quickly took fleece from a sheep in a recent demonstration at USDA's Beltsville, Maryland, research center. He duplicated a job performed by highly skilled sheep shearers but without clippers. The sheep had been dosed with an experimental chemical previously used mainly in cancer therapy.

Breaks Homegame Streak...

Yoe Clips West 8-7

Cameron Yoemen broke their four-game losing streak and broke West's 25-game home winning streak Friday night with an 8-7 victory on Trojan Field.

The Trojans kept the Yoemen off their half of the field during the first two periods. Only 12 yards rushing were allowed by the Trojan defense.

With a minute left in the first half, Billy Wolf ran five yards for a West touchdown. Smokey Kubecek's point after kick was good and West led 7-0.

The second half was a different story as Yoemen defenders, Johnny Bailey, William Wheeler, Ronnie Richardson and Bobby Taplin dug in. Fumbles and interceptions added to the Trojan woes.

A Trojan march to another score after the second half kickoff was ended when Wolf lost the ball and Dale Schigut recovered at the 29. John Urban recovered a fumbled Wolf kick on the Trojan 15 and began the three-play march to victory. Quarterback Ken McLerran tossed a 14-yard pass to Johnny Steamer for a touchdown. Larry Pinchback ran the 2 points for home and a Yoeman lead.

Cameron's defense protected that lead, forcing three West fumbles and two interceptions in the second half.

McLerran, 130-pounder replacing injured Robert Brashear at the quarterback slot for the second week, racked up 49 yard for Cameron.

Trojans Wolf and Mynarcick tallied 97 of West's 99 yards.

District 19-AA play begins Friday for the Yoemen as they meet Hearnear on Yoe Field for homecoming.

Weems Grandson Cited Posthumously For Vietnam Action

The Silver Star for gallantry in action plus three other medals have been awarded posthumously to Capt. George Lincoln Barber, III, who was killed in action in Vietnam early this year.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Lincoln Barber, Jr. of Jacksonville and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Weems of Cameron. He was killed by fragments of a hostile booby trap as he led his company in the tactical zone near Thau Thien, in Vietnam on March 4.

The army notified his widow that the Silver Star for gallantry in action, Bronze Star Medal, Air Medal and Purple Heart had been awarded posthumously. Prior to his death he had been awarded the National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Ribbon, Expert badge with rifle bar and marksman badge with pistol bar.

Thorndale Oil Well Abandoned

The R. W. Cumley No. 1 C. P. McWilliams, Milam County wildcat drilled about nine miles southeast of Thorndale, was reported dry and abandoned at 5,800 feet late last week.

The wildcat was an Edwards Lime test—the latest attempt to hit production in that exclusive formation—and was permitted to 6,000 feet. Hancock Drilling Co. was the driller.

The McWilliams was located on a 409 acre lease in James Hamman Survey in the southeast corner of Milam County, and about 15 miles from the Milbur Field. It was the first wildcat drilled in the area in a number of years.

Home Landscape Needs Fall Check

The fall and winter season is the time to check and decide whether replacement plants are needed in the home landscape.

May be a rose bush has died or failed to live up to expectations or there is a gap in the shrub border where a new plant is needed and was shade adequate in the outdoor living area, asks Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist.

Make a list, suggests the Texas A&M University specialist, of your landscape needs and be ready to take advantage of the selections offered early buyers by garden and nursery centers.

The natural inclination, he says, is to put off garden work until late spring when everything is greening up and the spring flowers are in bloom. Then suddenly comes the urge to plant trees and shrubs and a rush for plants only to find that only picked-over stock remains.

Janne says that balled and burlapped plants and those grown in containers can be planted any time of the year. Many of the deciduous plants, those that lose their leaves each fall, can be more easily handled or transplanted in a bare root condition.

For best results, however, bare root plants should be set out in the late fall and winter from mid-November through February in most areas of Texas, the horticulturist says. Planting during this period gives ample time for root development before spring growth begins, points out Janne.

Amendment 12 Analyzed

Proposal For Cities To Let Industrial Revenue Bonds

AMENDMENT No. 12-S.J.R. No. 14

(Granting the legislature power to authorize cities and counties to issue revenue bonds for industrial development purposes.)

This proposed amendment adds a new Section 52a to Article II of the Texas Constitution with the purpose of empowering the legislature to allow cities and counties to issue revenue bonds and use the proceeds to buy land and equip industrial plants.

At the time the legislature proposed this amendment in 1967, interest on bonds of the type authorized was exempt from federal income taxation and thus had the advantage of attracting low interest rates. Now pending in the Congress, however, is legislation that would remove the tax exemption on interest from industrial revenue bonds. When H.R. 15414, pertaining to excise and other taxes, reached the Senate after being passed without amendment by the House of Representatives in the Congress, Senator Abraham Ribicoff introduced an amendment to the measure to withdraw the tax exemption on interest from industrial revenue bonds. The Senate passed the measure with the Ribicoff amendment and returned it to the House of Representatives on April 15, 1968. On May 22, 1968, H.R. 15414, containing the Ribicoff amendment was still in conference in the House of Representatives.

Meanwhile on March 23, 1963, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue published in the Federal Register his Regulation 1.103-7, which would remove interest on industrial revenue bonds from their tax-exempt status. As of May 22, 1963, this regulation was still subject to approval or rejection. Should either the Ribicoff amendment or the IRS regulation be adopted, industrial development bonds would be deprived of the tax advantage that now gains for them a low interest rate.

Bonds of the type authorized by the proposed Amendment No. 12 would be repaid through lease payments made by industries, and property acquired from proceeds of the bonds would be subject to ad valorem taxes. The use of tax revenue, utility revenue, and revenue from services of any county, city, or town for payment of the bonds is prohibited.

Enabling legislation giving the cities and counties and navigation districts authority to issue revenue bonds under terms of the proposed amendment was also enacted by the 60th Legislature. The measure (H.B. 446, compiled in Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes as Article 71-70, Sections 1-14) is designated the Act.

BACKGROUND

In 1957 the Texas Legislature amended the old act creating the Texas Industrial Commission to provide for the organization and operation of a program to attract and locate new industries in the state. Location of new industries and expansion of industries already in Texas immediately turned sharply upward, so that in 1967, 296 new industries located in Texas and 370 existing plants were enlarged or expanded. Nevertheless, Texas remains one of the few states in the nation without an industrial bond program, the purpose of which is to encourage the development of industry. Neighboring states of New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Arkansas are among the 44 states with bond programs similar to that authorized in the proposed Amendment

No. 12. ARGUMENTS For:

1. Adoption of Amendment No. 12 would place Texas in a competitive position with neighboring states of New Mexico, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Arkansas in inducing new industries to locate in the state.

As proposed by Amendment No. 12, the industrial revenue bonds issued by cities and counties would be repaid through lease payments made by industry for land and plants and, therefore, would not be a burden on the taxpayer or state revenues. At the same time, the availability of plants and plant sites made possible through revenue from the industrial bonds would provide an incentive for new industries to locate in Texas and would stimulate industrial growth and the overall Texas economy.

AGAINST:

1. The authority granted the legislature by the proposed amendment to permit cities and counties to issue industry-attracting revenue bonds is not only a form of subsidy to new industry but also has the effect of placing local governments in the commercial real estate business for other than a direct public purpose. The credit of cities and counties issuing the bonds could be jeopardized, and existing industries would be penalized by giving newcomers an unfair advantage.

2. The proposed amendment could induce harmful competition between cities to provide the most favorable conditions for an industrial concern.

Leather Makes The Fall Scene

By Christine Laws

Leather apparel of all types and textures deck the fall scene. Items include leather jackets, coats and vests for men, suits, dresses, coats and separates for the girls. Top choices in leather separates are jackets of all cuts, vests, zingy skirts, jumpers, and shorts and pants.

From first graders to college coeds, school girls will wear boots.

New styles range from sleek, refined lines to a look that is rugged. Heights vary but the most popular are to the knee or over. Materials range from leathers to plastics. Top leather textures include smooth, grained, waxy, glove, antiqued, patent, brushed and suede.

Some boots go the rugged route with a frontier theme of fringe, tooling or hand-sewn lacing, a moccasin look, monk straps or heavy hardware. For a more restrained effect, some sport braid, delicate gold hardware, contrasting cuff, heel or overlay.

Sweet, juicy pears ripening in gold hardware, contrasting cuff, heel or overlay.

FALL PEARS RIPENING

Sweet, juicy pears ripening in home orchards add flavor and appetite appeal as well as cold contrast to family meals.

And winter meals will be more interesting if you make pear preserves or pear honey with the summer fruit now in season.

PEAR HONEY

To make pear honey, cut or grind late pears into small pieces. To four pounds of pears use three pounds sugar. Mix and cook until it is the consistency of honey. Pour into hot sterilized jars. Leave no head space. Seal. For variety, add 1/2 cup lemon juice or one cup crushed pineapple five minutes before packing.

PEANUT BUTTER

If you are interested in combining a good buy, good eating and ease in preparation, now is the time to use more peanut butter.

A standard of identity for peanut butter will become effective in October, requiring peanut butter to contain at least 90 percent peanuts by weight.

Peanut butter is made in several grinds. The usual types are coarse or chunky, medium and fine. For a smooth texture, use a fine grind; for an interesting "broken nut" effect, use a coarse grind.

Last year's peanut harvest was a record one and this year's crop is expected to be even larger. About half the peanut crop is usually made into peanut butter so it should be in plentiful supply.

Blend it with pitted dates, crushed, drained pineapple, cranberry sauce, chopped cooked prunes or apricots, chopped seeded raisins, pickle relish, grated carrots and many others.

CARD OF THANKS

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Medical Care for Your Pet
Business is booming in the care and treatment of pets. Already, about half of the nation's veterinarians are engaged in this field. How good is the work they do? What does the law have to say about the quality of veterinarian

To begin with, all states require graduation from an accredited school of veterinary medicine. But besides that, doctors who treat pets must live up to a certain level of competence—just like doctors who treat people. That is, they must perform in accordance with service? the average, accepted standards of their profession. If they do not, they may be subjected to claims for malpractice. For example: A veterinarian, treating four dogs for mange, dipped them in a too-strong solution of lye. The dogs all died, and the veterinarian was duly held liable for damages. On the other hand, the mere fact that a treatment fails—when there is no evidence of negligence—is not enough to make the veterinarian responsible for the consequences. Thus, a veterinarian was held not liable for the development of rabies in a puppy that had been the doctor had administered the bitten by a rabid dog. Noting that usual Pasteur shots in the usual way, the court said there was no basis for finding fault with his work. True, a veterinarian may be held liable for a failure if he has flatly guaranteed good results. But few veterinarians will venture to make such a guarantee. Mere words of hope, voiced to reassure a pet's anxious owner, can seldom be construed as a positive and unconditional promise. What if a pet is brought in not for treatment but only for boarding? Then too the veterinarian takes on a responsibility to be reasonably careful. Ordinarily he would be liable if, as a result of his negligence, the animal escapes and is lost or hurt. However, this responsibility does not arise until the pet is actually in the veterinarian's possession. If Fido makes a getaway when his owner opens the car door outside the veterinarian's office, the vet is not to blame. At that point, the owner is still "on his own." By Alva E. Sanders

In response to many requests, and in order to help growers make cropping arrangements for 1969 production of fall-planted barley and wheat, the minimum acreage diversion for those planning to participate in the 1969 feed grain program will be not less than 20 percent or more than 25 percent of the feed grain (corn, sorghum and barley) base. Minimum acreage diversion has been 20 percent for each of the eight years of the feed grain program.

It also has been indicated that there will be a need for additional diversion for payment in the 1969 program in order to balance production with requirements.

Final determinations relative to the 1969 feed grain program provisions will not be made for some time. However, studies of the supply situation and alternative course of action available have progressed to the point where it is possible to indicate that the minimum qualifying diversion will fall in the 20 - 25 percent range.

It is indicated that some farmers may want to divert 25 percent of their feed grain base in order to qualify for the 1969 program, and to plan their 1969 crop wheat program acreage substitution alternatives.

If, subsequently, it is determined that a minimum of 20 percent diversion is required for program qualification, such a producer would have two alternatives: he could leave the 5 percent acreage diverted and qualify for payment under the voluntary diversion provisions to be a part of the 1969 feed grain program, or plant the acreage to late fall or spring-seeded crops.

ACTIVITIES

By Fred Schuetze
Jerry Mueck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mueck, and a member of the St. Anthony 4-H Club, competed in the Duroc breeding show at the Heart O' Teas Fair October 1-6 in Waco. Jerry showed in the open show so he had to compete against all the Duroc breeders in the state present.

Jerry's gilt was chosen as reserve champion of her breed of the show. His gilt was champion of the county and area Sears Swine Show.

4-H's in Milam County are now selecting barrows to show in both the county livestock show and in some of the major livestock shows. Selection of barrows will continue through this month.

STEER PROJECTS
There are only 80 days left in 1968; this means there are only 120 or 130 days left before our county livestock show and the San Antonio and Houston shows. 4-H's with fat steer projects are starting to fit their animals. This fitting process consists of trimming the tails and heads.

4-H's should be washing their calves every 3 to 4 weeks and brushing them daily so that the hair on the body will be trained. This hair needs to be trained before we can start the fitting of the entire steer. Daily brushing of the hair also makes it grow. Longer hair allows a better trim, and overall good looks.

Lovegrass Gains Popularity In Cameron Area

The popularity of lovegrass in the Cameron area is increasing all the time, reports R. W. Mann of the Soil Conservation Service. He said the two varieties being planted are Ermelo lovegrass and weeping lovegrass.

Although the weeping and Ermelo lovegrass are considered warm season plants, they are also being used for grazing during the winter months.

The grass cures well on the stalk so that it can be utilized by livestock during the winter. By using the grass in this manner, winter feed bills can be reduced considerably.

Lovegrass is established by the planting of seed. It can be planted in rows or broadcast. When planted in rows, the planting rate is 1 pound of seed per acre. For broadcasting the rate is 3 pounds per acre. It can be planted in the spring or fall and is adapted to the heavier soils as well as sandy soils.

Some of the cooperators of the Central Texas and Taylor Soil Conservation Districts who have planted lovegrass this year are: Lucien Kruse in the Maysfield community, Charles Hensley in the Belmena community, Mrs. Emma Hackett of Milano, and A. W. Kornegay in the Hanover community.

Milam County Farm Bureau ANNUAL MEETING

Thurs., Oct. 17
At
Farm Bureau Office

The calves should also be treated for lice. If they are not treated the hair will start to fall out.

4-H MEETING
The Countywide, Rockdale and St. Anthony Clubs met during the week of Oct. 6-12. Major business was the selection of a boy and girl from each club to compete for Mr. and Miss 4-H of Milam County.

County contestants are: Paula Fleming and Martin Mueck, Countywide 4-H Club; Peggy Stephens and Joseph Garza, Rockdale Club. The Rockdale Club will have a bake sale Oct. 19 at 9:30 a.m. in front of J. B. White's Store in Rockdale. Proceeds from the sale will go for votes for their candidates. There will also be posters and jars in stores for votes.

The Countywide club will also have a bake sale in front of Culpeppers Store for the same purpose Oct. 19 at 9:30 a.m.

The Countywide meeting was followed by a weiner roast at Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fleming's, local adult leaders of the Countywide 4-H Club.

The Minerva Club will have a rummage sale Oct. 19 at 9:30 a.m. across the street from Culpeppers in Cameron to raise money for their coming activities.

BUCKHOLTS CLUB
On Thursday, Christine Laws and Fred Schuetze met with interested 4-H's in the Buckholts School. There seems to be a lot of interest in 4-H in Buckholts and we hope to start an active club.

An organizational meeting will be held Oct. 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the ball park in Buckholts. This will be followed by a weiner roast. All interested youngsters and their parents are invited.

Let Small Grain Pastures Grow Before Grazing

Grazing small grain pastures before they have a chance to make needed growth can reduce their value as suppliers of fall forage.

Dr. Neal Pratt, Extension agronomist at Texas A&M University, says oats, barley, wheat and rye which have and are being planted this fall should be from six to eight inches in height before they are grazed.

Research, he adds, has shown that small grains will produce considerably more fall grazing when allowed to reach the above height when compared with plants which had reached only a four inch height when grazing was started.

When grazing is started at the lower height, the plants just don't get a chance to develop since most of the fall growth is made before cold weather begins, explains Dr. Pratt.

The plants must have lots of leaves and warm weather for fast growth. When the leaves are grazed off early, the plants at best make only slow growth. This, says the agronomist, severely limits the grazing during the winter months when the leaves are not growing.

It is a good idea to graze small grain pastures for only a short period each day. By following this practice, the pastures will furnish forage of high quality and the plants will make good growth, concludes Pratt.

DECEMBER DRAFT CALL

The December draft call for Texas is $69, up from $23 for November. Col. Morris S. Schwartz state Selective Service director, said Tuesday. This compares with quotas of 774 and 683 for October and September, respectively.

PORK IS PLENTIFUL

As fall hog marketing traditionally gets underway, pork is more plentiful and prices are somewhat lower. Stores will feature canned hams, picnics, bacon, Boston butt roasts and some chops.

TOWN and COUNTRY

County Agent's Notes...

Crop Survey Is Vital To County

By J. D. Moore
In the near future certain farmers and ranchers in Milam County will receive a crops questionnaire from Cary Palmer, state statistician of the Texas crops and livestock reporting service, Austin.

This survey is important in that future crop estimates will be made on the basis of the survey. Based on our recent experience with crops and livestock surveys, county stockmen and farmers may not be aware of the importance of their cooperation.

ANIMAL HEALTH
Stockmen should be alerted to the occurrence of a chronic blood disease called anaplasmosis, according to Dr. Robert Tittsworth, local veterinarian.

This disease is spread by ticks, horseflies, mosquitoes, and probably other biting insects, as well as by unclean surgical procedures.

Most visible symptoms of this disease may be loss of weight, listless movements of animals and even abortion by females in the early stages of sickness.

Stockmen are advised to have a conference with their local vet in order to be aware of local situations.

FALL WEBWORMS

The large number of webworms in local trees are familiar to everyone. The present buildup is greater than we usually have. This condition is due to the favorable reproduction conditions of moisture and temperature resulting in good foliage on most of our trees. The approaching cold weather in addition to the natural shedding of leaves will take care of this insect problem.

However, if control measures are desired, long-handled pruning shears may be used to cut the end of the limb off to eliminate the problem. A spray application may be used on trees having a heavy infestation of worms.

Some affected trees having pecans to be harvested may be sprayed with the insecticide Sevin at the rate of 2 tablespoons to 1 gallon of water. Sevin is a safe insecticide to use and may be applied up to within 7 days of harvest.

BEEKEEPERS MEET

Commercial honey producers of Texas will hold their 87th annual meeting at Texas A&M University Nov. 3-5. C. J. Burgin at A&M says the program will begin at 1:30 p.m. on Nov. 3 in the Biological Sciences Building. C. S. Engle of Wolfe City is president of the Texas Beekeepers Association.

NEW RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hyman and four children recently moved to the Branchville community. Hyman is employed by Anderle Lumber Co. in Cameron. The Hymans are former residents of Burnet.

Farmers Union Cotton Committee Recommends 15 Point '69 Program ton growers representing the 17 District 2 counties on the South Plains has recommended a 15-point 1969 cotton program.

The recommendations have been sent to the state Farmers Union office at Waco for combination with recommendations from the other eight Farmers Union cotton producing districts in Texas and forwarding to National Farmers Union as the Texas recommendations for the 1969 cotton program.

The views expressed by the Farmers Union cotton committees will be presented to Secretary Freeman by National Farmers Union president Tony Dechant in response to Sec. Freeman's request for the Farmers Union view on the kind of program he should announce for 1969. The announcement on marketing quotas will be made by October 15 and the details of the program are expected before December.

The District 2 Committee agreed that the regulations for 1969 should "focus on improving cotton producer net income."

The Committee urged a production of 12 million bales in 1969 and projected that a carry-over of five and one-half million bales should be adequate.

It recommended that the mandatory diversion level be increased to 10 percent and that payments for voluntary diversions up to 53 percent of the allotment should receive a payment rate of 10 cents per pound. Other recommendations highlighting the meeting which was held in Lubbock Sept. 30, were that small farm, skip-row and lease and sale regulations remain the same as in 1968.

The Committee opposed any increase in the loan level, giving as its reasons the possible reduction in program participation, adverse effect on exports, and possible reduction in direct payments.

The District 2 Farmers Union Cotton Committee composed of cot-

WHICH TWIN HAS THE ALL ELECTRIC HOME?

Electric cooking is so clean and cool. Electric heat is free of smoke and soot. Electric appliances are time-savers allowing more leisure, greater freedom. An all-electric home is so clean and efficient. Thus, it is obvious that the young housewife on the left has an all electric home.

However, appearances can sometimes be deceiving.

The other young housewife also has an all electric home but she's been out fighting a grassfire.

Absentee Vote Important. . . .

Absentee voting began Wednesday. The November 5 election promises a continuation of the modern voting drama and growing independence of the American electorate, local to national. Thus, the absentee vote in Milam County and throughout Central Texas involves new importance and newer meaning.

Since 1948, the Texas and, as a part of American leadership, the American voter has been deciding world issues as well as domestic issues by his vote. That is the year Truman was elected as first post-war American president who acted unilaterally in Korea in the UN's behalf and who was elected in three - candidate contest.

Only until Vietnam burst upon complex domestic issues did the American voter realize his importance. Only until he saw the frustration of social conflict at home and international involvement did he know the importance of his decision.

The American voter tends to delegate a great deal to his public officials. But when things wedge and bog, he knows the basic decision is always his. Absentee voting this year is somewhat a re-enactment of 1948. The major parties are, in effect, contested by a Southern minority party which seeks to simplify the complexity of American domestic and international issues.

Absentee voting, then, is important.

What Others Say

Summer's Fine, But

It is the time of year when a lot of people customarily wonder where summer went and indulge in small recriminations with themselves about not taking full advantage of the lazy, hazy, crazy days . . .

But there is something about rising wind and the tramp of the storm god that makes men of spirit mentally beat their chests and utter primeval cries of defiance and exultation . . .

The real swingers relish the slow wheel of the seasons. The sting of snow and the exhilaration of a frosty morning as well as the calm dawns when the dew is on the parkways. The nights when the boards creak with the cold as well as the days made for short-sleeved shirts.

Farewell, summer. You were splendid—and sufficient. Now the crisp days begin, and Orion, the Mighty Hunter, will soon begin the slow swing into sight of the constellation of winter.

Bring it all on. We're content with the last few months, and looking forward to the next ones.

State Employees 'On Stage' Speir Tells Association

"State employees are more on stage today than ever before in our history," Colonel Wilson E. (Pat) Speir, Director of the Department of Public Safety, told more than 250 delegates attending the Texas Public Employees Association annual meeting Monday at Austin.

He explained that he did not know if the word "questioned" was the correct one or not, but today the public is more cognizant of their government on every level and the employees who operate that government. Thus, the public is watching the stage performance of our State employees or questioning them more than ever before.

Speir warned the delegates that as State employees they create an image of State employment in their every act, and urged State employees to strive for quality—not only in their work, but in their home, community, church and in every activity.

He continued saying that he was recently asked, "Have we gone too far in our liberalism in America?"

He answered that in some respects that we have gone too far such as in our disrespect for law and its enforcement.

Speir challenged State employees to be bold—to change with the good changes in our complex society and then to stand erect—to think and act with performance of the law in other changes.

Speir urges those of us who believe in law and respect for law to speak out—our State leadership has been such that all of us should be grateful because it has avoided bad riots here.

This different age in which we live contributes to the general restlessness. State government and its employees should stand pat and represent the finest—as ours does now, said Speir.

Presidential Hopefuls Seek Texas Votes In State Visits

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Presidential candidates, wooing Texas voters and the state's 25 electoral votes, are becoming familiar visitors in the Lone Star State.

Republican Richard Nixon swooped into Dallas for a rally Friday. He's likely to return, as is his running mate, Spiro T. Agnew, who also was here earlier.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will try to breathe new life into the late - starting Democratic drive with a barnstorming tour starting October 22. Ed Muskie, Humphrey's No. 2 man, is supposed to drop in around the 30th.

Third party candidate George Wallace made plans to return to Texas this week. He scheduled a high-noon rally for Fort Worth for Thursday (Oct. 17). Both Wallace and vice presidential candidate Gen. Curtis E. LeMay are being encouraged by backers to make repeat performances before Nov. 5.

While waiting for the candidates to make their personal appeals, their supporters fought the battle of the polls.

Humphrey's national headquarters claimed a Belden sampling showed 35 percent of the Texans interviewed favored Humphrey; 3 percent were for Nixon; and 26 percent for Wallace; with just six percent undecided.

"Strange," retorted Nixon's state camp, since its Merrill - Wirthlin poll showed: Nixon 34 percent; Humphrey 27 percent; Wallace 22 percent; and undecided 17 percent.

Houston Chronicle interviewers concluded Nixon is leading with 40 percent of the vote. Humphrey ran second in the Chronicle's poll with 33 percent; and Wallace third with 28 percent.

Activity in the Humphrey camps definitely is on the upswing. Texas Citizens for Humphrey - Muskie—headed by Sen. Ralph Yarborough—and Texas Democrats for Humphrey-Muskie—led by Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth and Will D. Davis of Austin—are battling against time to rally the traditional Democratic strength.

Former Gov. Allan Shivers, who emerged as national chairman of Democrats for Nixon, is actively encouraging "splitting the ticket"—for the GOP national nominee and the Democratic state and local candidates.

COURTS SPEAK

Awards totaling $477,900 to seven persons injured in a truck and Greyhound bus wreck three years ago was upheld by the State Supreme Court.

High Court, while declining to annul an order appointing Houston attorney Leon Jaworski to the board of trustees of the Robert A. Welch charitable foundation, agreed that the appointment should be given full court hearing.

Right of Temple to retain 549.9 acres of land annexed five years ago was upheld by the Supreme Court, even though the city had not provided water or sewer service to the territory.

Same court backed a trial court decision in holding that no vacancy existed with regard to 155.1 acres of land in Upton County and that the property belongs to Atlantic Refining Co.

Court of Criminal Appeals stuck by its earlier reversal of a seven-year sentence given Houston tobaccoist Mair J. Schepps charged as an accomplice in printing counterfeit cigarette tax stamps. State motion for rehearing was overruled.

ELECTION SUIT FAILS

Laurel N. Dunn, an independent candidate for the 11th District congressional seat held by U.S. Rep. W. R. Poage, lost in his lawsuit before the Texas Supreme Court to challenge state election regulations.

Dunn wanted to force Secretary of State Roy Barrera to change his election handbook because it requires the "check" method of marking ballots, and Dunn insisted that the "scratch" method should have equal sanction.

Under state law, ballots may be marked either way, so long as the voter is consistent all through his ballot.

SALES TAX CHALLENGE

Texas Supreme Court will hear an appeal from a lower court's ruling that transportation of material between the seller and the buyer is subject to the state sales tax if the transporting is part of the sale.

High court will review a holding by the Third Court of Civil Appeals

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

I was in town the other day to pick up another ten-cent bolt for a quarter and as I was finishing the transaction the store owner asked, "Well, how's the weather out your way? Need a rain?"

"Yeah," I whispered, looking around to see who else was in the store. "I could use a little rain."

"What're YOU WHISPERING ABOUT?" he asked. "YOU EITHER NEED A RAIN OR YOU DON'T," the whole store could hear him, and I got my bolt and cleared out.

What he doesn't understand is that among farmers the weather is a delicate subject and it's considered highly unneighborly, not to say rude, to hope for a rain out loud when some people around you haven't got their crops out yet. Speak not of rain in the house of those who still have hay on the ground.

It's not that anybody thinks hoping has any effect, but it's as risky as denouncing Baptists or Methodists or Catholics when you are in a cafe and don't know what denomination the people at the next table belong to.

After I got home I opened up the newspaper I had hauled off and bought when I was in town, if the price of newspapers was as inflated as tractor bolts and warfare they'd cost a dollar instead of a dime, and immediately ran into an article on weather control.

According to it, scientists are working on eventual worldwide control of the elements. Some day, it claimed, man will be able to decide when it'll rain, when the sun will shine, where we need snow and how much; will be able to eliminate tornadoes and hurricanes and will never have a ball game called off on account of rain.

In fact, it said, the whole world will be air-conditioned, winter and summer.

This will be fine, until some day in the dead of winter when everybody has thrown his blankets away, has his windows open and is running around in his shirt-sleeves, the electricity goes off.

Personally I intend to keep a supply of firewood on hand, if I can get somebody to saw it for me.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Federal Grants Reduced For '70 Airport Growth

Requests from Texas cities and counties for Federal financial assistance to build and develop public airports for the fiscal year 1970 will be received by the Federal Aviation Administration until November 22, 1968, the Texas Aeronautics Commission has been notified.

Charles Murphy, Commission director, said only $30 million Federal money would be available in 1970 nationwide as compared with $75 million for 1969.

Of the $75 million, 23 Texas cities were allotted $5 million—if the same ratio prevails in 1970, Texas cities will receive only $2 million.

What this means, Murphy said, is that almost the entire burden of building an air transportation network in Texas embracing the smaller towns now falls to the individual states.

Of the 44 grants recently made to smaller towns by the TAC, 10 of the Texas grants will be supplemented by Federal allocations. There is expected to be practically no federal aid to small towns beginning in 1970.

ASTROWORLD HOURS

Astroworld today announced new operating hours for this fall of 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays only. The new schedule goes into effect immediately.

vegetables for hire around the state.

Charles Long of Rusk, Alvin Land and his Land Trucking Co. of Raymondville and Rio Grande Truckers Inc., the plaintiffs, are each authorized to transport 'fresh fruits and vegetables' from and to any point in the state.

L. T. Waldrop of Seminole, V. R. Nelson of Dimmitt and W. A. Joke of Saragosa got Commission approval to begin trucking vegetables from within 200 miles of their home towns to any point in Texas.

The three contestants claim that the Commission's granting of the permits amounts to unfair competition for them. Their lawsuits are pending in Travis County district courts.

You say you'd like a few suggestions on how to get more out of your telephone service?

Here are five tips to help make your every "hello" a real good buy:

1. Whenever you're moving to another town within the Bell System, let us arrange for your phone service before you move. If you know the address of your new home, we can make arrangements in advance so you'll have the exact service you want in your new home. We'll also refer calls from your old phone to your new number if you like. Just call the business office and ask about our Easy Move Plan. There's no extra charge.

2. Speaking of moving, we hope you realize that wherever you move in the Bell System, there is no color charge for the phones at your new address if you had color phones at your old address.

3. Ever wonder what to do when you get a wrong number on a Long Distance call? Just hang up, dial "0" for "Operator," and tell her what happened. She'll see that you're not charged for the call.

4. And if you ever lose your dime in an out-of-order pay telephone, just go to a working phone and report it to the Operator. She'll arrange to have your dime mailed to you. Also, if you give her the number of the out-of-order phone, we'll get it fixed right away.

5. Long Distance interstate rates are lower all day Saturday and Sunday, and after 7 p.m. each weekday. You can also save money if you call by number. A station-to-station Long Distance call costs about one-third less than a person-to-person call.

At Southwestern Bell, our goal is to help you get the very best telephone service. We want your every "hello" to be a real good buy.

WOULD YOUR CONGRESSMAN VOTE FOR GEORGE WALLACE?

Some fine Texans are tempted to vote for the 3rd party candidate because they admire his stand and his statements on some of the major campaign issues . . .

STOP AND THINK WHAT WILL ACTUALLY HAPPEN . . .

The best that Wallace supporters can hope for is enough strength to throw the election into the turmoil of a Congressional election by the House of Representatives . . .

THEN WHAT HAPPENS?

The answer is certain and simple. Wallace supporters are at the mercy of Washington Politicians! Every vote for George Wallace automatically becomes a vote for Hubert Humphrey!

THERE IS A BETTER CHOICE . . .

A vote for the NIXON-AGNEW ticket is a positive vote for "change" with the definite promise that our National Affairs will take a new direction . . . the direction you want it to take!

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford
Most outdoorsmen, especially hunters, hail their wives as the world's greatest wild game cooks. If the real truth came to light, it would be learned that these statements are simply to mollify the little lady in the kitchen. If you could tune in on the typical hunter - wife conversation when young Dan'l Boone trooped into the kitchen laden with game, it would run something like this: "Don't bring that in here! I'm not going to stink up my kitchen cooking it. Give it away. Let someone else cook it."

Admittedly some hunters do bring smelly messes into the kitchen, and they are to be chastised for so doing. But there's another side to the coin. Often the wife is at fault. Sometimes she scolds young Dan'l simply to cover her ignorance in not knowing how to cook the game.

This ignorance, both on the part of the hunter and the housewife, can be eliminated by a little book "larnin'."

Most cookbooks contain recipes for cooking game and fish, but in general they are quite sketchy. There's a new book out—Shooter's Bible Cookbook by Geraldine Spender—which should be a must in the library of every outdoorsman.

This 208-page paperback book covers the game from hunt to dinner table. And it's written by a woman who appreciates hunting. She and her husband hunt regularly, and her hunting arsenal consists of shotguns, hunting and target rifles and handguns.

Opening chapter of the book can get young Dan'l off the hook for it adequately covers field dressing and storage. Remember hunters bag the game, and they also ruin much of it through improper field dressing, storage and care.

If young Dan'l becomes an expert in field dressing, he can leave most of the stink in the field and eliminate those cold stares and sarcastic words from the better half when he reams into the kitchen with evidence of his hunting skill hanging over his shoulder.

Well prepared game is tasty, but there is no denying that at times some game will cause pungent odors in the kitchen. And, of course, young Dan'l's wife is going to air objections about that.

But if the housewife studies the recipes in the Shooter's Bible Cookbook, she'll discover how she can turn out some real fine game dinners with none of the "gamey" smell hanging like a thundercloud in the kitchen.

The book contains chapters on cooking big and small game, fish, fowl and game soups. Also what to do with all that game "barger." Additional chapters cover the preparation of sauces, stuffings, and side dishes that can turn the game meal into the proverbial seven-course dinner.

This book is the little gem that can bring peace within the household of the hunter. And who knows? It might even get the little lady interested in going hunting herself. And that is the opening wedge—a big one—in getting a smiling okay for some additional hunts.
